

Risk Communication and Community Engagement (RCCE)

Risk Communication and Community Engagement (RCCE) Focal Point

Background

El Amal Rehabilitation Society – Rafah (ERSR) is a civil non-profit organization established in 1991 with Ministry of Interior registration number 5058. Our society is NGO leader working with distinction in the field of development, education, health, culture, training and rehabilitation in order to ensure a better life for marginalized groups, especially the deaf and enhance their capabilities based on qualified professional that use better techniques to build a generation capable of contributing to the building society , it also aspire to distinctive and active participation in building a civil society in which deaf people enjoy full rights in the Palestinian society .

job summary:

El-Amal Rehabilitation society, in partnership with International Medical Corps (IMC) is seeking to implement Supporting community resilience against COVID-19 through community-based activities. This project comes under the umbrella of a USAID-funded project implemented by IMC that aims at mitigating the adverse effects of the COVID-19 pandemic on the health system and vulnerable populations in Gaza and supporting community resilience through integrated health facilities and community-based health services. El-Amal is seeking highly skilled staff to be hired for the following position:

Position Title: Risk Communication and Community Engagement (RCCE) Focal person - Full time

Of Position Available: 1

Place: El-Amal Office, Rafah

Reports To: Project Coordinator (PC)

Period: 7 Months

Key Responsibilities:

- Plan, facilitate, and implement RCCE activities in close collaboration with the IMC RCCE consultant and relevant technical and health emergency teams in IMC Gaza

- Plan, coordinate, co-produce, and disseminate RCCE materials and locally contextualized messages (audio-visual, written, and multimedia) with close ongoing collaboration and support From the IMC RCCE consultant in Gaza.
- Ensure the relevance, accuracy, quality, timely dissemination, and evaluated outcomes and impact of these RCCE materials and messages.
- Work with relevant IMC and stakeholders to support and build trusted community networks and multi-stakeholder partnerships that will achieve targeted and shared impact of RCCE actions.
- Provide technical guidance to rapid assessments and KAP (Knowledge, Attitudes, Practices) surveys were undertaken with communities, at-risk populations, and other stakeholders.
- Establish feedback mechanisms through social media, community surveys, and direct dialogues and consultations to ascertain community perceptions, knowledge, preferred and accessible communication channels, influencers, and barriers to their adoption of health-seeking behaviors.

Qualification and Experience:

- University Degree in journalism, communications, social science, or international relations and or equivalent.
- Studies or experience-based knowledge of communications techniques and media relations.
- At least 2 years' experience in the field of information, public relations, communications, journalism, or in a similar field.
- Experience in planning and implementing media and communications projects, preferably including the development of audio and visual materials and tools for community socialization and mobilization.
- Professional writing and presentation skills, strong photographic and/or video and presentation skills are major assets.
- Strong communication, and social skills
- Bilingual fluency in English and Arabic.

اللية التقديم :

- يمكن للمرشحين المؤهلين تقديم المستندات علي الرابط إلى (infoers.rafah@gmail.com)
 - خطاب تعريف حوالي 200 كلمة
 - السيرة الذاتية بما في ذلك 3 جهات اتصال معرفين
 - يرجى الإشارة الي المسمي الوظيفي في سطر الموضوع بالبريد الإلكتروني
 - الموعد النهائي لتقديم الطلبات يوم الخميس 2022/02/17 الساعة الثانية عشر ظهرا

